

Personal and Otherwise

Play pool at Gulley's.

J. R. Blair was out from El Paso, Tuesday.

For good carpenter work Crisamore is the man to see.

B. E. Sisco made a business trip to El Paso, Friday.

Regular dinner at Gen Restaurant, 12 to 2 p. m., 35 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McCann went to El Paso, Monday.

The kind of cigars and tobacco you want we have it. Gulley's.

It is announced Crisamore is soon to have another home yard.

Leo Thomas and Sam Revell are serving on the grand jury this week.

See Crisamore for well casing. A good supply always on hand.

Grant Crisamore has begun laying the walls of his new business house.

TAYLOR, head carpenter and chain polisher, office at Columbus barber shop.

WANTED: To buy lots in Columbus. Give prices and location. T. A. Hulsey, Columbus, N. M.

Bronze turkeys, Rhode Island Red, Leg horn and Plymouth Rock cockerels. B. E. Sisco.

B. W. Ryan has recently purchased lots in the Rice addition.

If you want to see your decided land or relinquishment see Nelson and Sisco.

G. W. Patterson and S. W. G. on El Paso are prospecting in the lower valley this week.

If your name is not on our subscription books, we shall be glad to place it there.

Clotting pressed and cleaned. F. W. Johnson. At Harding ton's Grocery.

Miss Kate Gibson of El Paso visited with her sister M. S. P. H. Pennington, Saturday and Sunday.

F. M. Cassitt, E. Ragember, Hood Brown, Mr. Holmes, and W. H. Cord are recent builders in the lower valley.

A new bridge has been built across the ditch just west of Moody's store which now gives easy access to the Rice addition.

J. W. Blair met with a painful accident last Friday, by being thrown from a horse, and sustaining a badly wrenched back.

The El Paso poultry show is December 19 to 25 inclusive. You ought to attend.

Edward West went into El Paso, Monday. He expects to return in a couple of weeks bringing his household effects.

Some of Columbus citizens are doing grand jury work in Deming this week as a result of a visit from chief Deputy Sheriff, J. A. Kealy, last week.

Oil cooking and heating stoves at Crisamores.

For best native cedar posts see Leo Thomas.

Sweets for the sweet at Gulley's.

J. R. Chadborn is doing duty in Deming this week.

Dr. P. H. Cosner left Monday for a few days in Deming.

A. E. Kempers finishing a cottage in the Rice addition this week.

Rev. W. J. Gordon, the Baptist pastor preached here Sunday afternoon and night.

Howard Alley of Pecos, is spending a few days with his family on their homestead east of town.

P. H. Pennington has secured a couple of lots from the townsite company east of the drug store on which he moved his residence, Wednesday.

Grant Crisamore has rented the upstairs of the Waterbury building, now being constructed. The townsite company will occupy rooms in the rear of the lower story.

It will take the official count to decide who are elected to some of the state offices. This will be made next Monday.

The renewal of your subscription to the COLUMBIAN accompanied by a remittance is acceptable at any time.

A local newspaper is expected to show up the best side of local events and incidents, if there is one out sometimes there is not.

C. W. Bess of 1/2 Roy, who is one of the new settlers in the lower Mimbres valley, having filed a desert entry on the N 1/2 S. W 1/4 sec. 18, Twp 28, R. 7 W., this week.

R. M. Hogue and Jas. Enos of El Paso are sizing up Columbus and the lower valley this week. Wouldn't be surprised if they didn't give onto something before leaving.

Have you read the article on "A Good Poultry House," by Lee O. Padlock, in this issue of the COLUMBIAN. If you are interested in poultry you should not fail to read these series of articles. They will prove helpful to you.

If the party who entered my house Monday night and took $65 from my trouser pockets will either return or make arrangements regarding the return of same there will be nothing said. Otherwise prosecution will be in order as the party is known.

Grant Crisamore.

Rev. S. Alonzo Bright, Superintendent of the New Mexico Mission of the Methodist Episcopal Church delivered a very interesting and helpful sermon to a large and attentive audience last Sunday morning.

Jno. Stearly and family of Pueblo, Colo. are here to make their future home. They have taken up a section of land lying north of town. They are wonderfully pleased with the prospects of this section.

The Rice addition well was completed last week. The total depth is 125 feet. Water was struck at 90 feet and comes up within 60 feet of the surface. The supply seems abundant and will be thoroughly tested in the near future when a pumping plant has been installed.

See Crisamore for carpenter work. No job too small nor too large for him. L. H.

Fine young blue jeans for Thanksgiving see Mrs. Leo Thomas.

See Crisamore for corrugated and rock faced iron.

Jno. Dalton and P. H. Pennington have purchased a couple of lots east of McCughan's real estate office on which Mr. Dalton will put up a building for business purposes.

Full line of cigars and tobacco at all times. Gulley's.

For RENT: Good 2 room house. Also 1/2 sec. fine grass land 3 mi from town. Leo Thomas.

It is not very often that a little boy like Columbus possesses such an artist as A. L. Taylor. Mr. Taylor, on various occasions, has demonstrated his talent in this line by producing various cartoons, sketches and pen drawings. His latest is a real estate sign painted for Nelson and Sisco. Its hard to beat.

Sales Manager Moseley, of the Rice addition, reports the following recent lot sales: W. R. Page, 1/2 block; T. A. Hulsey, 4; Mrs. J. R. Chadborn, 4; Mrs. Alice Bryant, Ft. Stockton, Texas, 4; C. A. Sorrel, El Paso, 4; Jno. Dalton 4, and B. W. Ryan, 2.

A homestead in the Mimbres Valley, the first essential next, a lot in the Rice Addition to Columbus.

Geo. R. Rice of Reed City, Mich., filed homestead and desert entries this week.

Misses Grace and Marguerite Goebel returned from Santa Fe last Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Laddell has purchased four lots in the Rice addition.

W. C. Hoover, a prominent banker of Sapulpa, Oklahoma is investigating business opportunities in Columbus, this week.

The tickets you hold will entitle you to their face value in votes to your favorite Thanksgiving night. The quilt will be voted away, the proceeds going toward the interior finishings of the church.

For Sale

A small shipment of fine perfunery suitable for holiday trade, will sell same at less than cost if taken at once. Address: J. D. Box 829, El Paso, Texas.

....Your....

Opportunity

To secure a Home in Columbus and the lower Mimbres Valley is

Right Now

We have the latest guides and can show you the best

Free Government Land, Relinquishments, Deeded Land or Town Lots

We cordially invite you to call or write

NELSON & SISCO,

Columbus, N. M.

The tickets you hold will entitle you to their face value in votes to your favorite Thanksgiving night. The quilt will be voted away, the proceeds going toward the interior finishings of the church.

If you smoke call at Gulley's. Extra copies of the COLUMBIAN may be secured at this office at 5 cents the copy, wrapped and ready for mailing.

Crisamore for roofing paper.

The tickets you hold will entitle you to their face value in votes to your favorite Thanksgiving night. The quilt will be voted away, the proceeds going toward the interior finishings of the church.

Program for Thanksgiving Night at Auditorium

For some time the Ladies Aid has been planning for a well executed program and all details are now arranged. It will be both musical and literary, concluding with the disposition of the elaborately worked quilt to the person securing the greatest number of votes.

- PROGRAM
- Instrumental Solo, Mrs. J. Grimwood.
 - Musical Selection, The Peach Family.
 - Reading, Miss Marguerite Goebel.
 - Duet, A. L. Taylor.
 - Reading, A. L. Taylor.
 - Tableau.
 - Disposition of quilt.
- Admission Free.

The quality of what you have to sell is known to some people all of the time and all of the people some of the time, but advertise regularly with us and you'll reach all the people all of the time.

Take the COLUMBIAN for news.